

HAY WARDS HEATH TOWN COUNCIL

PRESS RELEASE: 21 January 2019

Town Mayor to hold 'James Bond' style Fun Charity Casino Night in Haywards Heath – Tickets now on sale!

Cllr James Knight, Town Mayor of Haywards Heath is to hold a James Bond Casino Royal fun Charity Night to raise funds for his chosen charity, the Dame Vera Lynn Children's Charity on Friday 12th April 2019.

Tickets are on sale for £25 which include food, wine and beer, live music and the first set of fun money to buy your chips for the fun Casino Royale. There will be a top prize for the winner who makes the most fun money on the tables at the end of the night. There are also some amazing prizes to be won at a silent auction which will be held on the night.

Town Mayor, Cllr Jim Knight, commented:

"I do hope that many of you join me for this fun filled evening to raise funds for my chosen charity. Local companies have been so kind providing sponsorship for the evening and I have been overwhelmed by the generosity of the businesses which have donated prizes for the silent auction.

My thanks for to Fairfax Properties, Collinson Group and CSL Behring for sponsoring the event and I do hope we can raise a significant amount for this wonderful charity that is such a valuable support to people locally."

The Casino Royale evening will run from 7.30pm to midnight on Friday 12th February at the Town Hall in Boltro Road. For more information or to get tickets for the event, please contact Maria at the town hall on 01444 455694 or email maria.horne@haywardsheath.gov.uk.

Ends.
